

No Organized Bolt Occurs

Great Uncertainty Among All the Candidates.

TILLMAN AND HILL TALK,

One for Principle and the Other for Harmony.

NOMINATIONS NOT REACHED.

Minority Report for International Agreement.

CHICAGO, July 9.—Delegates are coming in slowly. It will be some time yet before the convention comes to order. Prominent men are cheered as they enter.

The committee on platform have added an anti-A. P. A. plank and a resolution granting civil and religious liberty to every citizen.

A Boies banner has just been carried in and is cheered.

When the convention was called to order only part of the delegates were in their seats.

A minority report of the committee on resolutions will be presented by Senator Hill, in which strong exception to the silver coinage plank is taken, and will contain a strong endorsement of President Cleveland.

Senator Jones announces that there will be one hour and twenty minutes given each side for debate. The minority report in advocating that all money should be kept at a parity with gold, was loudly cheered.

The plank endorsing the present administration was loudly cheered. Many delegates and a large part of the audience were on their feet. Chairman rapping for order.

Tillman, of South Carolina, is offering an amendment and is to speak for fifteen minutes. Tillman is speaking in favor of the majority report. He is to be given fifty minutes. He refers to lying newspapers that have misrepresented him, "the pitchfork man," from South Carolina. [Cheers and laughter.]

He says we are to inaugurate a war to liberate "The White slave." [Cheers.] He says he cannot say whether he is a representative of the entire South. [Cries of "No, no, no,"] and confusion. Senator Vilas will in turn speak for the minority report. Tillman says we have been hewers of wood and carriers of water in bondage to the states of New York, Connecticut and New Jersey. He says this is a sectional issue. [Hisses with few cheers.] He says facts cannot be changed by hissing and is presenting arguments to corroborate his statement. Asks if New York and Pennsylvania got its great increase in wealth in the last decade honestly. [Cries of "Yes," and "No."] Says the increase of its wealth is more than 25 of the west, western and southern states put together.

Says the south has no angry feelings or resentment for wrongs it has endured. Time on Tillman caused interruption to his speech.

He says sectionalism is between the people and money oligarchy of the east. Asks where is the New York leader now? Cries of "In the soup," from the galleries. Cries from the galleries of "Herr Most," hisses and laughter. Again he referred to the lying newspapers. Loud cries of "Hill, Hill," from the galleries.

Tillman said he would have his say if he stands here until sundown. He said Hill forced the present issue and left it to him to tell why. Tillman's reference to Cleveland was loudly cheered. He said to endorse Cleveland's administration would be to write ourselves down as liars.

He referred to the bond syndicate. [Cheers and hisses.] Cleveland had no courage to override his oath and invade the state of Illinois with government troops. Cleveland has been the death of the Democratic party so far as he could be. We must get Populists and Bimetallists to endorse the platform and nominee or they are beaten and disgraced in November.

He said we have repudiated sin in the platform but have failed to join the sinner. [Laughter.] He denounced Cleveland as un-Democratic and tyrannical. He denounced the issue of bonds in a time of peace as usurpation of authority and deserves impeachment. [Hissses.] Tillman finished. Senator Jones, of Arkansas, in addressing the convention favored majority report, said this is not a sectional convention. [Cheers.] He says this is a sectional question. [Cheers.] He says he would lay down his life but loves the whole of this great country above South and above section.

Chairman White dropped the gavel at 10:52. The buzz of thousands of voices gradually subsided and the delegates took their seats. The New England delegations with the exception of a few stragglers had not arrived. The New York delegation, however, headed by Hill and Whitney, were in their places. At five minutes before 11 o'clock Rev. Green, of Cedar Rapids, Ia., who made the opening prayer yesterday, again performed the same office.

When the prayer was concluded, Senator White handed the gavel to Congressman Richardson, of Tennessee, who announced that the committee on resolutions were ready to report and called to platform Senator Jones, of Arkansas, to make the committee's report. The effect of the reading would have been better, had the Southern senator controlled a stronger voice. The silver ranks raised to cheer when some of them heard the words "we demand the free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver."

One enthusiast demanded that the passage be re-read, which was done. Jones said he was hoarse, indeed, his voice, two or three times nearly failed him. As the delegates could not hear much from the platform, most of its points fell uncheered, but the denunciation of the government interference by injunction, which is taken as an indirect approval of Governor Altgeld's course, during the Chicago strike, met with recognition.

When the plank, expressing sympathy with Cuba, had been read the flag of the new Republic, with blue and white and a single star on a red field was carried along the aisles, it did not arouse as much of a demonstration as the partisans of Cuba had hoped it would. Richardson rapped on the desk and cried "put down that flag." So it dropped from sight. It was evidently a tired convention.

It seemed impossible to stir the conscience with any enthusiasm. The reading of the platform was concluded without any marked applause. Then the report of the minority was read by J. H. Wade, of Ohio.

THE MINORITY REPORT.
CHICAGO, July 9.—Following is a minority report on the platform for the money plank:

"We declare our belief that the experiment on the part of the United States alone, of the free coinage of silver and change of the existing standard of value, independent of action of other great nations, would not only imperil our chances, but it would retard, or entirely prevent the establishment of international bimetallism, to which the efforts of the government should be steadily directed. It would place the country upon a silver basis and impair contracts, disturb business, diminish the purchasing power of the wages of labor and inflict irreparable evils upon our nations commerce and industry. Until international co-operation among the leading nations for the free coinage of silver can be secured, we favor the rigid maintenance of the existing gold standard, as essential to the preservation of our credit. The redemption of our public pledges and keeping inviolate our country's honor, we insist that all our paper and silver currency shall be kept at a parity with gold.

The Democratic party is the party of hard money and opposed to legal tender payment as part of our permanent financial system and we therefore, favor gradual retirement and cancellation of all United States and treasury notes, under such legislative provisions as will prevent undue contraction. We hold that the national credit shall be resolutely maintained at all times and under all circumstances.

The minority also feel that the report of the majority is defective, in failing to make any recognition of the honesty and economic course, fidelity of the present Democratic administration, and they therefore offer the following declaration as in amendment to majority report:

"We commend the honesty and economic course and fidelity of the present Democratic national administration, headed by Hill and Whitney, were in their places. At five minutes before 11 o'clock Rev. Green, of Cedar Rapids, Ia., who made the opening prayer yesterday, again performed the same office.

When Hill ascended the platform there was great cheering. Hill says if Tillman is a Democrat I am a mugwump. [Cheers.] Hill says his mission is to unite and not divide. [Cheers.] He asks need be defend New York and her citizens. Cries of "No, No." He says New York is the Gibraltar of Democracy. He says it is not a question of patriotism. It's a question of business and finance and economy. The convention should only declare in favor of international bimetallism.

HILL TALKS.

CHICAGO, July 9.—Debate results are today expected from the Democratic national convention, certainly on platform and probably on candidates unless a deadlock develops. It is to be a battle of great oratory with initial appearance of such figures as Senator Hill of New York; Tillman of South Carolina; Jones of Arkansas; Vilas of Wisconsin and Gray of Delaware. The outlook is for a vote late in the day, probably about 6 o'clock, then a recess until evening, when nominating speeches, and probably balloting will begin. No definite line of action has been agreed upon by the gold men, but the individual members of New York and other eastern delegations, freely express the intention of either quitting the convention hall when the silver platform is adopted, or announcing their purpose not to support the candidates.

It has become practically certain that no organized bolt will occur, as the counsels of Senator Hill and ex-Secretary Whitney have prevailed toward a conservative action. A new phase of the two-thirds question has arisen in the possible course of the gold element to refrain from voting. In that event, parliamentarians differ as to whether a nomination must be made by two-thirds of the delegates present or two-thirds of those voting. It is regarded by some leaders as a critical question.

The delivery of gold votes, 200 or 300 in number, to one of the silver candidates on theory of choosing the least of several evils, might prove decisive, and give to the gold men an advantage dictating the nomination. There is as much uncertainty among candidates on the eve of balloting as before the convention opened. It is significant fact that no figures or estimates strength are given by the leaders.

The gold people rose and cheered but after their outbreaks of yesterday these efforts were faint. The endorsement of the Democratic administration which Hill had made is losing.

The fight for committee resolutions brought a yell from the galleries. Senator Ben Tillman, of South Carolina, mounted the stage to open the great debate in behalf of free coinage.

LEAVES IN DISGUST.
Ex-Postmaster General Bissell of Buffalo, went home late yesterday, leaving his alternate to vote for him. He said he could not stay, after the violation of state rights, in unseating the Michigan gold men to seat men who had no credentials.

BRYAN'S ORATORY.
When Bryan closed the debate the wildest scene of the convention ensued. All silver states carried their banners to the Nebraska delegation. Altgeld said it was the finest speech he ever listened to and added: "I don't know but what it may nominate Bryan."

Hill's motion to endorse minority report was lost. Ayes 303; noes 620; one not voting. Received with cheers. Hill's motion endorsing the present Democratic administration resulted as follows: Ayes 354; noes 308, some few not voting. There was so much confusion during the vote it was impossible to keep track of it. Hill's motion that if the free coinage of silver is not satisfactory in one year, it be discontinued, was lost by a large viva voce vote.

PLATFORM ADOPTED.
The vote on adoption of platform resulted: ayes 658, noyes 301, absent 1. The convention takes a recess until 8 p. m.

ALL FOR BRYAN.
Senator Daniel said considering the occasion and circumstances Bryan's speech was the greatest effort he ever listened to. He believes Bryan will be the nominee. Virginia, he says, will probably cast six votes for him.

George Frederick Williams, of Mass., will nominate Bryan, and his nomination is predicted on the second ballot.

Georgia and Louisiana delegations have declared solidly for Bryan.

Missing Vessels.

NEW YORK, July 8.—The two big sailing ships, the Santa Clara and the City of Philadelphia, sailed from this port last February, bound for San Francisco. The last heard of the Santa Clara was March 30th, when she was reported off the coast of Brazil. The City of Philadelphia was reported in the same locality on March 3rd. Since then nothing has been heard of either vessel.

The United States consul at the Falkland Islands, wrote under the date of May 14th that a large full-rigged ship had been driven ashore on Billy rock, a point near Port Stanley. It was believed that all hands had been lost. The letter was mailed on the mail steamship bound for Montevideo. Upon the vessel's arrival at Montevideo, the captain reported passing a quantity of case oil and lumber. The Santa Clara was laden with case oil and carried lumber for dunnage.

Guide Balloons.
NEW YORK, July 9.—The Herald's correspondent in Montevideo telegraphs that a Spanish resident, an electrician, declares that he has discovered means whereby he can guide balloons in any direction in the air. The inventor has been asked by the Spanish government to visit Madrid that his invention, if found to be practicable, may be applied to use in Cuba.

Shot At.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., July 9.—Warner Miller barely escaped being shot Saturday while riding on a New York Central train from Albany to Herkimer. The train was passing through the outskirts of Albany, when a bullet crashed through the window an inch above Miller's head, covering him with splintered glass and passing out of the opposite window.

Mashonias Repulsed.

CHICAGO, July 9.—The Herald's correspondent in Montevideo telegraphs that a Spanish resident, an electrician, declares that he has discovered means whereby he can guide balloons in any direction in the air. The inventor has been asked by the Spanish government to visit Madrid that his invention, if found to be practicable, may be applied to use in Cuba.

CHICAGO, July 9.—A call has been issued for a conference of colored men to be held this evening to discuss the question whether or not the interests of the colored people would be better subserved by the coining of silver 16 to 1, as outlined by Bland and Teller. All colored men, regardless of party affiliations, have requested to be present and participate in the deliberations of the conference.

Christian Endeavors.
WASHINGTON, July 9.—Christian Endeavor delegates and friends are fast taking possession of Washington, and there are every indication that the prediction of the local committee will be realized by the arrival of between 35,000 and 40,000 delegates. The convention was formally opened by services in 23 churches.

Statue to Bolivar.
CARACAS, Venezuela, July 9.—The Venezuelans, through the efforts of President Crespo, intend to donate to the city of New York an equestrian statue of Simon Bolivar.

The O. R. & N. Sold.
PORTLAND, July 9.—The O. R. & N. was bid in today by the reorganization committee for $9,437,250.

CUBANS DETAINED.
Bearers of Dispatches Arrested in Jamaica.
KINGSTON, Jamaica, July 9.—An officially recognized rumor has been current in Kingston that a Spanish wareship recently secretly landed a force at Dry harbor to kidnap a Cuban, alleged to be the chief mover in a filibustering expedition.

This place is conveniently situated at a lonely spot near Dry harbor. In the neighborhood are men many of the old Spanish ruins, in the secret cellars of which it is known that the Cuban insurgents have from time to time hidden arms and shipped them off to Cuba at their leisure, defying the native detectives, who have always failed to locate these store places.

Matters stood thus when a few days ago, just before daylight an open boat with 11 men arrived just off Runaway bay on the north side of the island. The boat had come from Cuba, and those on board were Captain L. Prado Senor Zelamao, J. F. Lumones, R. Maggarro, P. Forma, G. Lavis, M. Laro, P. P. Morales, a servant and two reporters for American papers. They had come, it subsequently transpired, with dispatches from Antonio Maceo for the Cuba junta here.

Three of the men were put ashore at Runway bay with instructions to make their way with all speed to Kingston, on the opposite side of the island. The men traveled by road and reached the railroad line at Ewarton station. When about to board the train the three were arrested by a police sergeant and taken to Dry harbor. The medical authorities ordered the men and the police who arrested them and the driver of the conveyance from Ewarton to Dry harbor to be placed in quarantine. Senor Ronden, president of the junta, and a couple of prominent Cubans finally went over to Dry harbor, but were not permitted to approach closer than 100 yards from those in quarantine.

They carried on a conversation in Spanish with the messengers who brought reports of the recent battle in Puerto Principe. They spoke of the position of the insurgents as excellent. The organization discipline of the Cuban force left nothing to be desired, and Havana was at their mercy, they said, but without a fleet they could not hold the city, and nothing therefore was to be gained by an assault upon it just yet.

It was gathered that the Cuban generals had decided upon a course of definite action with a view of forcing matters. The dispatches which the men brought are also understood to bespeak the assistance of the Cubans in Jamaica. It is said the dispatches have reference to a coup de main that Gomez is preparing, and which will startle the world in a short time.

FROM THE BASIN MINE.
Four Thousand Dollars the Result of Twenty Days' Run.
LA GRANDE, Or., July 8.—There is displayed in the Farmers' & Traders' bank $4000 in gold, which is the result of 20 days' run at the Basin mine. This brings the total output of the Basin mine up to about $20,000. The yield has been uniformly about $400 per day since the mine has been operated. There is still trouble with the water in the mine. The small pump is being worked, but this will be laid aside and a new and larger one put in. New machinery has been ordered, and will be in operation in about 10 days.

Work of recovering and otherwise repairing the drainage canal through town is now in progress. This canal or sewer extends from Fourth street to the eastern part of town, and the sewerage from the principal part of the business section goes into it. People who live near where the sewer ends have entered complaint on account of the stench which arises.
